

AMERICAN FORK ARTS COUNCIL October Calendar 2011

For full details and online registration for all Arts Council events, please visit americanforkarts.org

Visual Arts

Fall Classes

"Especially for Teens"

Date: Thursdays, Sept.29, Oct 6 & 13
Time: 4:00 to 5:30 p.m.
Place: Historic City Hall
31 N. Church St.
Cost: $25 (all art materials provided)
Instructor: Ben Szabo (say-bo)

"Fall Surprises"

Ages: 6 to 11
Dates: Saturdays, Oct.1st, 8th & 15th
Time: 10:30 to 12:00 noon
Place: Art Annex, Fitness Center
454 North Center, Am. Fork
Cost: $25 (all art materials provided)
Instructor: Liz Evans
Focus: Seasonal activities which include drawing lessons and experiences with art medias.

"Just Add Water"

Ages: Students 16 and older
Dates: Saturdays: October 1st & 8th
Time: 11:00 to 2:00 p.m.
Place: Historic City Hall, 31 N. Church St.
Cost: $25 (watercolor paper provided for class projects.)
Instructors: Mary Ann Johnson & Angie Player
Focus: Beginners are given the basic techniques of water coloring and experienced artists are challenged with new discoveries.

Symphony

"Musical Menagerie from A to Zoo"

Monday, October 17 at 7:30 p.m.
A. F. Junior High New Auditorium
1120 North 20 West
Admission: $5 individual, $15 families (includes tax)

This concert, under the direction of Alan Allred, is planned for families of all ages and will feature music written by some of the world's most renowned composers. In 1936 Sergei Prokofieff, a Russian composer, was commissioned to write a new musical symphony for children. The intent was to introduce children to the musical instruments of an orchestra. Each character in the story had a particular instrument and a musical theme. The music and story, "Peter and the Wolf", however, was popular to young and old alike and has become a classic performed by famous symphonies throughout the world. The symphony will also perform "Hansel and Gretel Prelude" by Engelbert Humperdinck and "Sleeping Beauty Suite" by P. Tschaikowsky. This music is based on the Grimm Brothers collected fairy tales from different origins. "Somewhere in Time" by John Garry and B.A. Robertson will end the concert. The 90 members of the symphony are from American Fork and surrounding communities from Draper to Payson. For more information, visit the website www.americanforksymphony.org or call Maxine at 801-756-2330.

Symphony

Humanities

Mary Kawakami Speech Contest

'America Our Country'

Applications are due on October 3, 2011
All Junior High and High School students in North Utah County. The actual Speech Contest is on October 29 at 9:00 a.m. You can get your application in your History, English, or Speech classes or at the Historic City Hall, 31 N. Church Street. Call if there any questions, 801-763-3081.

Humanities

"All Things eBooks: How to Write, Format, Market & Sell in 2012"

Saturday, October 15, 2011; 9 a.m. - 4 p.m.
$59 before Oct. 7 ($89 thereafter). Register online at AmericanForkArts.org or call 801-763-3081.

Featuring Rebecca Shelley, Utah's bestselling eBook fiction author. Nebula Award-winner Eric James Stone. Karlene Browning of LibrisPro, and LDS ebook novelist Roseanne Wilkins.

Narrative Voice Boot Camp for Writers

10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Friday, October 14,
$99 (before Oct. 7, $139 thereafter) or $129 combo price for both "All Things eBooks" and Boot Camp, Oct. 14-15.

Humanities

Creating great narrative voicing is the key to selling books in 2012. Learn the 12 elements of narrative voice & study the best examples from national bestselling authors. Includes a workbook of 50+ pages to take home. Seating is limited - register today!

Writing Class

Wednesdays, 6:30 to 9:30 p.m.
Historic City Hall, Room B
31 N. Church Street, American Fork

For more information,
calebwarnock@yahoo.com or call 592-3136

Children's Choir

Come & Join the Choir

Youth Singers

Ages 6 - 7; Mondays/3-3:45 pm

Concert Choir

Ages 8 - 14; Mondays/3:45-5:30 pm

Historic City Hall, 31 N. Church St.(50 East)
Young Singers registration $45/ semester.
Concert Choirs registration $85 for the first child $45 for additional siblings/semester.
Register online at americanforkarts.org or by calling Lori at 801-763-3081 or Christine at 801-492-0183. We will be performing two concerts as well as at a national young adult book release and doing singing service for the folks at Heritage Living Center this Christmas.

Ukulele Boot Camp

Saturday, November 5th
9:30am - 2:30pm (45-minute break for lunch at 11:45 a.m.)
AF Historic City Hall (31 N. Church St.)
$70 Ukulele Included - Register before October 31st
$45 Bring Your Own Ukulele
Register by calling Lori at (801) 763-3081 or at americanforkarts.org

Learn to tune, hold, strum and sing along with your ukulele; all the basics you need to know to get you started on a life filled with ukulele bliss. This class will prepare students for the weekly American Fork Ukulele Circle or for self-guided instruction. This is a condensed version of the wildly popular Ukulele Choir Camp that was taught this past summer and featured in the Daily Herald and on Channel 2 News. Want to bring your own ukulele or registering later? Visit UkulelePlay.com for suggestions on what ukulele to get and where to get it.

