

Mr. James H. (J.H.) Hadfield is a longtime resident of American Fork. He is a retired Colonel from the Utah National Guard with 37 years of service as a Citizen Soldier. He represented the Citizens of American Fork as the Chairman, Planning and Zoning Commission; member of the American Fork Irrigation and Metropolitan Water Boards; and Chairman of the Board of Adjustment. For the past 15 years, J.H. has supervised the Engineering Department for American Fork City. J.H. is the President of the Iron Blossam Owners Association at Snowbird, where he is entrusted by over 5,500 owners with a budget of nearly 4 million dollars.

Mr. Hadfield is a registered Scout Leader, a Commissioner, and a Counselor. He has volunteered for years with the American Fork High School in the Arts and Athletic Programs. In his church, J.H. has served in every local leadership position and continues to provide selfless service and support in every capacity.

Mr. Hadfield holds a Bachelor of Science in Engineering and is a graduate of the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College. He is married to Elaine Hadfield and they are the proud parents of four children and ten grandchildren.