

The affected area of the planned water outage has been identified as falling within the red boundaries indicated on the map below. However, the outage may extend slightly beyond these parameters. Residents are encouraged to exercise their best judgment in preparing for this outage.

